ORDER AND TENTATIVE RULING ON MOTIONS FOR RELIEF FROM STAY

On April 16, 2020, twenty-six motions for relief from stay (the "Prior Motions") were filed by several similarly situated parties. The Prior Motions all requested that the court grant movants relief from the automatic stay to pursue their appeals in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. After the court issued a tentative ruling on the Prior Motions, Debtors filed a statement of non-opposition and no other objections were filed. The court granted the Prior Motions. See Order Granting Motions for Relief from Stay (Dkt. No. 6998).

Recently, nineteen similar motions for relief from stay (the “Motions”) were filed by similarly situated parties.¹ The Motions are quite like the Prior Motions and they are signed by the respective co-appellants.²

The Motions indicate that the parties are merely pursuing the next step of their appeal after waiting several years. The court sees no reason to deny Movants the ability to pursue their appeals or to interfere with the Ninth Circuit’s disposition of those appeals. Accordingly, the court is inclined to grant the Motions unless Debtors file any oppositions by 4:00 p.m. PT on July 7, 2020. In that case, the court will set a hearing on the Motions. If no oppositions are filed, the court will issue an order granting the relief.

The court also waives any fees associated with filing the Motions.

 END OF TENTATIVE RULING

² The only exception is Kimberly Blowney, as no prior motion was filed.
